

Your Divorce Options

What You Need To Know!

Divorce Options is an informational workshop offered on the second Thursday of every month to provide information about the divorce process and the options available to anyone considering divorce or separation. Workshops are open to individuals and couples, whether married, domestic partners, or cohabiting, with or without children, and same or opposite gender.

Divorce Options is presented by a team of collaboratively trained attorneys, financial advisors and mental health professionals who are members of Los Angeles Collaborative Family Law Association (LACFLA).

Class Covers:

- Litigation, mediation and collaboration - the risks and the benefits of each process
- Legal, financial, psychological and social issues of divorce
- How to talk about divorce with your children
- Guidance from divorce experts
- Community resources available to help you

Registration Fee:

$10 for the class (nonrefundable payment reserves spot)
Parking options available during registration

Presented by Los Angeles Collaborative Family Law Association in partnership with the LA Law Library.
