

LA Law Library buildings are currently closed to the public but we are still available 6 days a week by phone, live chat and email to assist you with your legal research needs. We know our patrons may be struggling with legal issues even while their government agencies are closed and we still want to help!

Remote reference assistance via phone and email will be available Monday - Friday, 8:30 a.m. - 6:00 p.m. and Saturday 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

- Email our reference staff to ask questions and fulfill document deliveries at reference@lalawlibrary.org. (During this closure, charges are waived for e-deliveries up to 25 pages.)
- Call us for Reference Assistance at (213) 785-2513.
- Use the Ask a Law Librarian statewide chat service.

Lawyers in the Library Consultations are being held telephonically this month due to public health concerns. To schedule a free telephonic consultation with a lawyer, click here.

Free access to recordings of some of our most popular classes, click here.

An extensive list of resources to stay advised of the current situation and protect oneself and others during the Covid-19 pandemic, click here.

Visit our website 24/7 at <http://www.lalawlibrary.org> to find more resources and information.

Please stay safe and let us know how we can help!