

NOLO PRESS BOOKS LOGIN INSTRUCTIONS

Step 1: Go to the LA Law Library website <http://www.lalawlibrary.org> and click Legal Research.

Step 2: From the Legal Research screen, click Research Databases, then Remote Resources.

The screenshot displays the LALAWLIBRARY website interface. At the top left is the logo, which consists of a stylized 'L' and 'A' made of vertical bars in white, grey, and yellow, with the text 'LALAWLIBRARY' below it. A horizontal navigation bar contains the following links: HOME (highlighted in blue), SELF HELP, SERVICES & RENTALS, LEGAL RESEARCH (highlighted in red), CLASSES & EVENTS, and ABOUT US. Below the navigation bar, the main content area is divided into sections. On the left, there is a vertical list of links: About the LA Law Library, Classes & Workshops, Find Legal Information, Find Court Forms, Find Your Court, Get Legal Help, and Speak with a Librarian. In the center, a dropdown menu is open under the 'LEGAL RESEARCH' tab, listing the following options: Reference Assistance, Library Materials, Research Databases, Areas of Law, Global Law, Government Documents, Meet the Librarians, Library Map, and Online Catalog. The 'Remote Resources' option is circled in yellow. To the right of the dropdown menu, there is a large image of a courthouse building with the text 'SUPERIOR COURT COURTHOUSE' visible. At the bottom of the image, there is a section titled 'FIND YOUR COURT' with the subtitle 'LEARN TO IDENTIFY THE PROPER COURTHOUSE IN LOS ANGELES FOR YOUR CASE TYPE.'

Step 3: From the Research Databases screen, scroll down to Legal Information Research Center. Click “here” to access this database remotely.

REMOTE RESOURCES

LA Law Library is pleased to offer remote access to valuable databases!

In our continuing efforts to reach those we serve wherever they are, we are excited to offer access to a limited number of resources remotely – whether from your home, office, school, neighborhood library or anywhere else with internet access. Our currently available remote databases are listed below.

EBSCO Legal Information Reference Center (LIRC)

The LIRC database offered by EBSCO allows for remote access to Nolo Press titles. Nolo Press specializes in resources for people who will be representing themselves in court or who need to address a legal issue without the help of an attorney.

To access LIRC, please click the link below. When you reach the login page, please use the credentials as provided in this PDF document: CLICK HERE

LexisNexis Digital Library

LA Law Library is also very excited to offer remote access to eBooks through the LexisNexis Digital eBooks platform! You can now borrow digital copies of Lexis books using your library card without visiting the Library in-person.

To access this service, click the link below and, when you arrive at the sign in page, choose the “Library Card Access” option. Enter your library card number. You will be able to borrow seven eBooks at a time, for up to seven days. Renewals are available for eBooks, unless another library card holder has placed a hold on the title. Books will automatically be removed from your account at the end of the loan period. For additional information, please review the following PDF document: CLICK HERE

The main content area on the right shows the title "Your California Small Claims Court Companion" and the beginning of the text, which starts with "Small claims court in California gives people who don't have enough money to hire a lawyer access to the legal system. If you have a simple case with a value of $10,000 or less, the chances are that you'll be able to litigate it on your own you'll be able to litigate it on your own (landlords will be able to use small claims to collect unpaid rent in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limit beginning August 1, 2021). The goal of Everybody's Guide to Small Claims Court in California is to give people bringing an action—as well as those defending one—all the information necessary to make the best possible use of small claims court. From deciding whether you have a case, through gathering evidence, arranging for witnesses, planning your courtroom presentation, and collecting your money, you will find everything you need here. For instance, this book will help you answer such questions as:
